GAVRT Simulations
by Admin User - Thursday, April 20 2006, 10:23 AM

They're here! The first GAVRT simulation is available for download. The simulation is of a QVS Antenna session. This and future simulations are in QuickTime format. Be sure you download the appropriate simulation for your QuickTime Player version. To find your version launch your QuickTime Player and click Help -> About QuickTime Player.

You are now logged in. Click on your name in order to input your school information.

Select the Edit Profile Tab.

Once you have selected 'edit profile', you should see the above screen. Please update your profile. Here is a short explanation of the above items:

- Email address – this is highlighted due to its importance. Your school email address is your key to the GSC web pages. Please double check that your address is correct. Let us know in Mission Control if it is not.
- Email display – you can choose to hide your email address, display it only to other GSC members, or display it to everyone; your choice.
- Email activated – you may enable or disable your email address. This means that you will or will not receive future automatic emails from GSC.
- City/town – Please type in the name of the city your school is located.
- Country – Please type in the name of country your school is located.
- Timezone – select the timezone in which your school is located. If you do not know it in reference to GMT or UT time, you may go to the website at <http://www.worldtimezone.com> and input your city and state or country and it will tell you or click on the chart we've provided to find out.
- Preferred Language – we will only communicate with you in English, however, if you would like your web page to be displayed in a language other than English, select it here.
- Description – you can write a description of yourself, school, program, etc. in this area.
- New picture – You can also post a photo of yourself.

When you have completed your profile, select the 'Update profile' button. To get back to the Survey page, click on GSC in the upper left-hand corner.
